

Smartag, Royal Customs ink MOU

2011/05/12

Smartag Solutions Bhd and the Royal Customs Department have entered into a memorandum of understanding to undertake a security and trade facilitation system to reduce traffic and waiting time at each customs checkpoint.

In a filing to Bursa Malaysia today, Smartag said the security system which used radio frequency identification (RFID) would help the department improve its information system and deter security threats. - Bernama